

Pappas Broadcast has no right "donating" time to one candidate while others have to pay for time used. The airwaves belong to us and they are being used to further individual political gain. This is definitely not right!